Getting out tonight, girl!

You just can't have enough 'girls' night outs,' especially those that bring substance and enlightenment to the table. That's what Girls Night Out Part 1 will do when producer/writer Lyah Beth Leflore (co-author of "Cosmopolitan Girls") and Teen People editor Tia Williams (author of "Accidental Diva") get together with Leslie Christian-Wilson (Diversity Gallery at the Pageant) and hostess Deneen Busby to get down to the nitty-gritty of today's relationships. This two-venue girls night out takes place at Diversity Gallery at the Pageant and the Regional Arts Commission (across the street) is and presented by Diversity Gallery at the Pageant and Traaces.
